

STATE OF ISRAEL
MINISTRY OF FINANCE

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Roni Friedman

Year of birth: 1957

Marital status: Married +3

Military rank: Colonel

Education

- M.B.A. in Business Administration, Ben Gurion University (1999), cum laude
- B.A. in Economics, Geography and Political Science – Bar Ilan University, Ramat Gan (1984)
- Graduate of the IDF's operational level course (1997)
- Graduate of brigade commanders' course (1990)

Background

Rich experience of about 25 years in command, management and instructing functions in field units and at the Command and Staff College, and about ten years in senior management functions at the Ministry of Finance.

Course of main functions:

Course of service involved command functions with armor units in peacetime and wartime, at the battalion, brigade and divisional level; representation of the IDF in the United States and command and instructing functions at the Command and Staff College; management of all administration and human resources components of the Ministry of Finance from January 2001.

Main functions

- First Deputy to the Director General at the Ministry of Finance from April 2005.
- Director at the Sports Betting Council from October 2003.
- Director at a study fund for social workers from January 2007.

- Deputy to the Director General and Human Resources at the Ministry of Finance from January 2001.
- Commander of the central course at the Command and Staff College and executive officer of an armor division 1995-2000.
- Army attaché at the Israel Embassy in Washington D.C. 1992-1994.
- Commander of a tank brigade and head of Armor Corps Doctrine 1990-1992.
- Tank brigade executive officer 1989-1990.
- Tank commander training battalion commander 1987-1989.
- Tank battalion commander in the 7th Brigade 1985-1987.

Key skills

- Command, management and operation of large units.
- Management and running of multidisciplinary senior staff (colonels, lieutenants-colonel).
- Command and instructing of training courses lasting about a year, including frontal teaching, running of study groups and coaching in application processes.
- Development of training programs, refining them over the years and adapting them to diverse populations.
- Thorough, detailed long term planning in a changing environment.
- Decision making under conditions of stress and uncertainty.
- Ability to integrate into a new environment, forming relations and leading the project for training the first MLRS rocket artillery battalion in the United States.
- Management of a multidisciplinary system, including budget, human resources and administration at a major government office.
- Leading large projects in a complex human environment.
- Negotiation with boards.
- Leading of projects and negotiations within my function as a director and chairman of the Facilities Fund at the Sports Betting Council.

Languages

English – spoken, reading and writing.