

STATE OF ISRAEL
MINISTRY OF FINANCE

CURRICULUM VITAE

Eldad Shidlovsky

12 Barazani St., Apt. 18, 69121 Tel Aviv, Israel

Tel. 9723-6412939, 97250-6207075

Education

1982 Doctor of Philosophy, New York University, Department of Economics.

1979 Master's degree, Tel Aviv University, Department of Economics.

1976 Bachelor's degree, Tel Aviv University, Department of Economics.

Areas of Specialization

Macroeconomics, economic and public policy, banking, finance, risks, investment and marketing.

Professional Experience

2007- Head of Economics and Research Department, Economics and Research Department, Israel Ministry of Finance.

2006-2007 Senior Division Manager and Acting Head of Economics and Research Department, Economics and Research Department, Israel Ministry of Finance.

2002–2006 Senior Division Manager, Economics and Research Department, Israel Ministry of Finance.

1999–2002 First Vice President, Development of special projects, Professional Training Department, Bank Hapoalim.

1996–1999 Head of Marketing, Business Development and Planning by Objectives Unit.

1994–1996 American-Israel Bank, Head of Business Development and Planning by Objectives Unit, American-Israel Bank.

1988–1994 Vice President, Planning and Development abroad Department, Bank Hapoalim.

1986–1988 Foreign Exchange Department, Bank of Israel.

Teaching

- 1999–2007 Lecturer in banking, master’s-level courses on banking risks and bank management, Bar-Ilan University, Department of Economics.
- 1988 Lecturer in economics—Selected Issues in Macroeconomics, Tel Aviv University, Department of Economics.
- 1984–1986 Lecturer in economics—Macroeconomics, Selected Issues in Macroeconomics, Macroeconomics workshop, Tel Aviv University, Department of Economics.
- 1983–1984 Lecturer in finance—Fundamentals of Investment Finance, Montclair State College, Department of Finance and Quantitative Methods.
- 1981 Lecturer in economics—Introduction to Economics, The Israeli Economy, New York University, Department of Economics.
- 1980 Research assistant to Prof. Vassily Leonitief, Nobel Prize winner in economics, in input-output analysis.

Scholarships/Stipends

- 1980 Scholarship from New York University, Department of Economics.

Seminar

- 2006 Course on Macroeconomic Diagnostics, IMF Institute.

Publications

Eldad Shidlovsky and Michael Sarel (2007), “The True Costs of Motor-Vehicle Use and the Desired Policy”, Israeli Quarterly on Taxes, No. 127.

Eldad Shidlovsky and Michael Sarel (2006), “Management of the Public Debt,” Israeli Quarterly on Taxes, No. 125.

Eldad Shidlovsky and Michael Sarel (2003), “The Influence of Fiscal Policy on the Rate of Economic Growth,” Israeli Quarterly on Taxes, No. 123.